FIFTEEN CENTS

In a short but very sweet public hearing held by the Antioch Village Board before a crowd of 35 at the old Antioch Fire Hall, Mayor Michael Haley announced the decision of board members concerning the downtown taxing district.

Earlier, the board had proposed extensive rehabilitation which would have involved the forming of special taxing district including some of the downtown businesses. The board had previously held public meetings and met opposition to the renovation plans.

On Jan. 28, the mayor announced that the village would pave, widen and storm sewer Orchard St. up to Hillside Ave. Part of the previous plan included sidewalks and lighting, however the present plan calls only for the renovation of the streets.

The plan will draw its funding from a loan which will be paid in the future using motor fuel taxes and standing village funds.

The plan also includes improving the traffic flow at the Lake St. intersection.

Also, future plans include a one way traffic flow.

education and driver education, and coaches varsity football and wrestling at Antioch High School.

WAPON HAS BEEN responsible for initiating several programs at the high school including the senior leadership program, kick off day, senior information for colleges and football camp.

Timothy Osmond is an insurance broker with his own agency. He received the Jaycee award for showing outstanding leadership within the community.

Osmond graduated from Antioch High School and got a bachelor degree in business administration from Western Illinois University.

He is a member of the Lions Club, the Antioch Rescue Squad and a member of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry. Osmond also volunteers his time as a coach for the Antioch Parks and Recreation Dept. as a coach for the youth basketball program.

William Groeninger will receive the outstanding young businessman-professional award from the Jaycees.

Antioch Grade School Board officials met Jan. 22 with Antioch Mayor Michael Haley and civil engineer Frank Angelotti to discuss differences they had concerning the village's proposed rechannelization of Sequoit Creek.

After a lengthy meeting laced with heated discussion from both bodies of government, the village learned that the school board would be sending a formal objection to the Department of Transportation against the proposed rechannelization plans.

In November, the board of education hired Dr. Roy Elmore from Harza Engineering in Chicago to study the effects that the village's project would have on the school's property. The study showed that the creek's capacity below the new channel would be less than that above the channel, and also that the fastest flow of the creek would be adjacent to the new W.C. Petty Grade School, creating a hazard for the children there.

ACCORDING TO ANGELOTTI, the project can be adjusted to equalize the capacity of the creek below the channel. "The capacity can be equalized by pulling the deadfalls out of the existing channel," he said. That is something the village's plan will include, according to the engineer.

Two other points that the school wished the village to consider before going ahead with the project as planned, were the increased danger near the school and the loss of educational value after the project is completed.

"The village did acknowledge that there is an increased danger with the project as it is stated now. They also thought that no action should be taken in regard to this situation," Dr. Donald Skidmore Antioch Grade School Superintendent said. He also added that the fastest rate of water flow occurs on the school's property, and they are concerned about the safety of the children at the school.

After DOT receives the objections filed by the school, they will make a decision on whether the project should continue as originally proposed or, if adjustments can be made to accommodate the school's apprehensions.

"It's no secret that the village is unhappy with the stance we have taken in this thing, but the safety of the children is our responsibility," Skidmore said.

According to Mayor Haley, the village will go ahead with the project as it stands, as soon as it is approved by DOT and other agencies.

Names in the NEWS

Billy and Gene Usry of Antioch both won their way to the championship at the Arlington Heights Sport and Fishing Show match by casting their spinning lines for accuracy at distant targets.

Young Usry won overall in the amateur competition and dad took third place honors in the pro division. Usry claims his competition was stiffer as he cast against some of the midwest's top casters, although his son beat him in a castoff.

Both Usry's are avid fishermen and Gene is a bass tournament competitor.

Benet Lake site for prayer renewal

Sister Mary Frances Boyle, S.C. from El Pomar Renewal Center in Colorado Springs will speak both days at the quarterly program for neighboring Charismatic prayer group to be held Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 23 and 24. The program will be held at St. Benedict's Abbey, Benet Lake, Wis.

INSURANCE INFORMATION

I own a house which is normally rented. My renters recently moved and I don't want to re-rent as I plan to sell the house. With my fire and extended coverage insurance, is the house insured while vacant?

A landlord fire policy allows 30 days vacancy for the purpose of giving you time to notify your insurance agent. You will be covered for up to two-thirds the appraised value with no extra charge. This is called Suspense Insurance. If it appears you will leave the house vacant for an extended period of time, you may, for an additional charge, have a Vacancy Clause added to your present policy. This will return the policy to its full value.

Women to hear hypnosis doctor

James C. Rich, M.D. will present a program of medical hypnosis for the Feb. 4 meeting of the Antioch Woman's Club at Harbor Ridge Country Club.

Dr. Rich, who most recently conducted his program for the American Association of Retired Persons, Inc., will speak to Antioch Woman's Club members on the range of practice in medical hypnosis which was approved ten years ago by the American Medical Association.

Using hypnosis as a medical tool, not an entertainment tool, his areas of consultation include stress, overweight and overeating, smoking, phobias such as insomnia, headaches and pain.

As a board certified anesthesiologist, Dr. Rich developed an early interest in clinical hypnosis prior to graduation from Loyola Stritch School of Medicine in Chicago in 1961. He has worked in the area of anesthesia as director at a surgical hospital in Vietnam, as a member of the faculty of Northwestern University Medical School, and taught hypnosis to dental students at Loyola Dental School. With seven years as director of anesthesia at Victory Memorial Hospital, he is presently in private practice on Victory's staff as well as the consulting staff at St. Therese Hospital, Waukegan. His own office practice in Waukegan relates to consultation in medical hypnosis.

The Feb. 4, Woman's Club program will include a 15-20 minute practice session demonstrating individual hypnosis, an information session followed by a question and answer period.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

I finally had the chance to get my mug shot retaken, and I must admit, it does me a bit more justice. Believe it or not, I spend much of my time behind a typewriter writing on various events in Antioch. I practically had to beg to be pictured with the flag last week, and it's taken me a year or so to get this new picture drawn.

People are funny about pictures. They always pretend like they don't want them taken, and you know they're just dying to be photographed. Like at holiday time, to get my whole family together takes the whole afternoon.

One thing you can't say about members of this community is that they aren't afraid to get their pictures in the paper.

Speaking of pictures, I heard that one of the fellas that went to the Super Bowl lost his wallet, and was more worried about recovering the picture of a boat than the money. Rod Garland, William Georgeson, Ev Ostedahl, Joe Pechulis were part of the group that spent Super Bowl weekend in the sun. They had great seats at the game, and played a little raquetball while they were there. They also visited a former Antioch resident during their stay.

They got home on Wednesday, and they did find the lost wallet.

Antioch Parks and Rec still need people to take advantage of the winter programs that they are offering. Dee Lang was telling me that there is still room for members in the portrait class, the bridge class and the quilting class.

I'm going to stop in at the quilting class, because I hear that the end product of the instruction will be a 14 inch pillow.

Russ Fairchild is reportedly home doing pretty good on his way to recovery. He returned from a five week stay in the hospital after being hit by a car right before Christmas.

He tells me that he is so thankful for all the good wishes he has received during this hard time. He especially was pleased with all the expressions of good will from the Antioch Fire Dept.

Can you believe that all the rumblings in Antioch, have shown up clear across the country in Livermore, California. There have been three earth tremors out that way in the past week, one quake hitting 5.5 on the Richter scale. Livermore is 35 miles southeast of San Francisco, and the quakes have taken place on, you guessed it, the Antioch Fault.

Belated birthday wishes go out to Clem and his son Todd Haley who celebrated their birthdays on the same day, Jan. 22.

Another wish goes out to Ryan Tomaschik who will be seven on Feb. 1.

Park program signups Do battle . . realistically

Due to snow the Cross-Country Ski trip is on!!! There is a choice of Feb. 9 or Feb. 10 class dates. The class begins at 9:45 a.m. at the Chain O'Lakes State Park Chalet, in Spring Grove and County Line Rd. The instructor is Greg Dickson who presented an orientation at the old fire station Jan. 22.

Food is available at the Chalet, and the cost of the class is only $19 with equipment rental and $13 without. Sign up is at the Park office at 874 Main St. or at the Tri-Angle Sports and Marine on Grass Lake Rd. and Rte. 83.

The portrait class did not begin Jan. 24 due to illness of instructor Jan Haley. It will begin Jan. 31 and run through March 6 on Thursday evenings from 7-8 p.m. There are still openings with a $5 fee.

This class will be held in the basement of the old fire station and Ms. Haley suggests no one under nine years old sign up, unless they are exceptional with such forms as circles, ovals, etc. This is a beginner course, however, and anyone interested should contact the Park's office to sign up.

Our beginners bridge class started at 9:30 Thursday, Jan. 24 in the basement of the old fire station, but there are still a few openings and some new students starting on Jan. 31. There are still spots for the one half hour class and can be had with a $5 fee. Louise Murrie is the instructor, and asks each student to bring one deck of cards, a notebook, pen, and join the coffee and bridge lesson.

Nadine Malik is teaching the quilting class which starts at 10 a.m. until noon on Feb. 8 and is each Friday morning for six weeks. This is also in the old fire station basement, and each person is asked to bring a quilting needle and thread. The charge is $15 for the class.

There will be a basic photography class with E.J.'s Camera shop beginning on Feb. 4 or Feb. 6. The Monday or Wednesday class is for six weeks at a cost of $12 from 7-9 p.m. and students must have their own camera.

Monday and Wednesday's are the nights for the aerobic dancing class to be held from 7:30-8:30 for 10 weeks at a cost of $20.

The class began Jan. 28, but newcomers can report Jan. 30, upstairs of the old fire station. No one under 15 should sign up.

Be sure to wear leotards or loose fitting clothing. Good tennis or jogging shoes are of utmost importance. Check with a doctor before starting any exercise program. Aerobics is a calisthenic good for the cardiovascular system, and there will be a close watch on the heart rate through the session.

Feb. 9 starts the new baton classes every Saturday from 9:45-10:30 for beginners and 10:45-11:30 for intermediates. The age is five and up, and there is a $20 fee for the eight week course.

Alyce Brownlee instructs this class held upstairs in the old fire station.

There is a girls basketball league starting Feb. 5 for 10 weeks for $10 at the Lower Grade School. This will be held every Tuesday from 6-8 p.m.

If there are any questions, or if there are any suggestions for programs for 1980 please contact Ms. Tomaschik at 395-2160. Antioch Parks and Rec office hours are 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, and Saturday, 9 a.m. to noon.

HONORS

Karla, sophomore, and Kimberly, senior, Herbst of Antioch, have attained honors at Northeast Missouri State University.

(Editor's Note: This letter was received in response to the Antioch Village Board's passage of an ordinance outlawing the sale of any type of drug paraphernalia within the village limits. The t-shirt establishment mentioned in the letter, is one of three businesses that received notification of the possible passage of the ordinance.)

Editor:

Whether I approve of what the Levas Brothers T-shirts, have done in bringing waterpipes and other such paraphernalia out into the open, in display cases, arranged as if jewelry or ceramic statues with no other purpose but for home accent... is not my issue.

I don't smoke pot, sniff coke, or pop pills... and I certainly wouldn't like it if my kids started doing it... Yet I cannot overlook the honesty in which the Levas Brothers have gone about their business.

This country is now overridden with underground drug affairs... beyond most of our comprehension. Still, even as we know it exists, we, as a whole people, look the other way pretending it does not exist. Yet in our own homes we breed drug abusers, alcoholics, and other such deviant behavioral problems.

Why does it continue in greater degrees as the years turn? Could be through the suppression of these problems.

Right now we have a Police State telling us what we can and can't do. Leaving people little choice. Hiding the facts behind the neat and pretty streets of Antioch... as in other relatively small towns.

As a protection? Haven't you ever heard of an overbearing, overprotective mother being the type who creates the worst kind of criminal for a son or daughter?

So where are your centers for family problems, teen problems, drug abuse, teen pregnancy, and suicides?

Can't these issues come to the surface... to do battle in a realistic way... or can't the majority of this town's leading adults give up their own underground activities? Why haven't these people found a direct and out in the open way of handling these problems?

According to the Illinois Department of Transportation and the Illinois State Police, Illinois traffic fatalities have continued to drop, closing out 1979 with a decrease of 5.5 percent. Provisional statistics show 2,019 traffic deaths in 1979 compared with 2,137 in 1978.

'Mystic Trumpeter' at Drake Theatre

Victor Aitay features a contemporary work by Chicago composer Lora Aborn, "The Mystic Trumpeter". This will be the first orchestral performance of the work, and it will be held at 8:30 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 8 at the Drake Theatre at Barat College, Lake Forest.

Soloists will be Robert Smith and William Scarlett. The program will also feature the Mendelssohn Symphony in A minor and Rossini Overture.

Tickets are $6.50 and $4 for students and senior citizens. All seats are reserved.

PM&L will host 'different' play

"The House of Blue Leaves" by John Guare and directed by Ken Smouse will be presented by PM&L at the PM&L Theatre, 877 Main St., Antioch, on February 9, 15, 16, 22, and 23. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

PM&L has always tried to choose a variety of plays to please all audiences throughout the season. "The House of Blue Leaves" recently was given by The Old Town Players in Chicago and was received with excellent reviews. It is funny but sometimes sad, hilarious but sometimes pathetic, and a play that will cause audiences to leave the theatre saying, "I never saw a play like that before."

To put it in a nutshell it is the story of a middle aged zoo attendant, Tom Hausman from Antioch, who still has lingering visions of being a songwriter, and the hopes are buoyed by his mistress who lives downstairs, Pam Quint from Antioch. On the day the Pope is making his first visit to New York, the mistress talks him into calling his old friend, now a Hollywood producer, Al Kessie from Richmond, for a job writing music for films. At the same time, his son comes home AWOL from Fort Dix, Dennis Monzell from Wilmot, Wis., with an ulterior motive in mind.

Add to this a somewhat deranged wife, Mickey Mandel from Fox Lake, a beautiful movie star, Carole Mallowney from Fox Lake, three wacky nuns, Aileen Biel, Roz Scheske, and Nancy Balmes from Antioch, and you have "The House of Blue Leaves." Other cast members are Steve Albright and Todd Seisser.

PM&L feels this play will be appreciated by more mature audiences and will not be understood by young children. Tickets are $3.50 for adults and $1.50 for students. Call 395-3055 for reservations or further information.

Applications available for St. Pete's board

On April 30, three members of the school board, Thomas Merkel, Charles Schwenn, and Linda Cermak, will have completed their terms. St. Peter Parish consequently will vote for their replacements. To provide for a smooth transition in selecting their replacements, the school board has developed and adopted the following procedures for nominating, qualifying, and electing members of the parish school board. Terms are for a period of three years. Members may serve a maximum of two elected terms.

The election committee will be appointed annually by the school board chairman to include ex-officio members of the board and board members.

Voting will take place after each Mass including the 5:30 p.m., on April 20. All adult parishioners or parents of St. Peter School children are eligible to vote. Parish rolls will be used to determine voter eligibility. Election committee will be responsible to appoint election judges.

A simple majority will be sufficient to elect a member. In the event of a tie, a runoff election will be held on the following Sunday. Results of any runoff election will be announced on the Sunday after the runoff.

Election results will be published and announced on Sunday, April 27. Elected members will be seated at the first regularly scheduled meeting after the election in May.

Ballots will be made available in Father Frawley Hall after each Mass.

Prospective members must qualify according to school board requirements which are: reside in the community for at least six months; be a parish member or parent of St. Peter school child; must be a minimum of 18 years old. No person employed by the school or volunteer aid involved in classroom activities may serve on the board.

Candidates for board membership must submit their application petition signed by at least 10 parishioners or parents of St. Peter School children to the principal, no later than 3 p.m., Tuesday, March 11. Application-petition forms will be available at the school office beginning Feb. 1. Names will appear on the ballot in the order petitions are filed.

The election committee will be responsible for certification of all applicants, will accept all application-petitions and will determine eligibility and acceptance of candidates to the school board.

Announcement of qualifying candidates will be made at the regular school board meeting on March 13.

In the event candidates do not qualify, they will be advised of the decision as well as the reason for their failure to obtain certification prior to March 13.

Candidates will have the opportunity to question the election committee should they fail to obtain certification and present their case in favor of certification prior to March 13.

Young women urged to enter Miss Antioch pageant

Marlo Good, chairman of the annual Miss Antioch Pageant to be held on Saturday, March 29 at Antioch High School, has called for civic and social organizations in the northern Lake County area to sponsor candidates, and encourage individual young women to submit their own names as entries.

Applications can be obtained at the Chamber of Commerce and Industry office in Antioch, 880½ Main St., or request by phone at 395-3381.

To qualify, a young woman must be between the ages of 17 and 26 by the Labor Day holiday, 1980, must be a high school graduate by Labor Day, and must never have been married.

Talent will be considered in the judging and each contestant should possess some quality of talent, either trained or potential. In discussing the talent qualification, chairman Good stressed that the range is varied and that no young woman must necessarily be trained in any specific field.

She also pointed out that many entrants in previous pageants in Illinois, did not realize they possessed a quality of talent until they considered entering the contest. In almost every national Miss America Pageant conducted in Atlantic City, N.J., there have been state queens who have presented dramatic readings or comedy monologues as their talent presentations before a panel of nationally prominent judges.

"Any potential entrant may also have a talent unrealized," Good commented, adding that a young woman might be a delightful singer, for example, without ever having exhibited her singing ability before an audience.

Each member of local civic and social organizations should consider the young women they know personally, as well as relatives or daughters of friends, and should encourage the girls to enter the Antioch Pageant.

Personality, poise, beauty and talent are the major requirements. Each contestant will be judged on the same values considered at the Miss Illinois state pageant and the national Miss America Pageant, based on personality, poise, beauty and talent as the major requirements. Each contestant will participate in the March 29 event in private interview, evening gown, swimsuit and talent categories.

For more information call Marlo Good, 395-2465, or co-chairman, Bill Groeninger, sponsor representative for the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry, 395-2700.

No, the grass isn't always greener everywhere else. There are plenty of places where the price of electricity is higher than it is here. Big ones, like New York City, where it's nearly twice as much.

And some not-so-big ones, not so far away, where they pay more too. In Lafayette and Des Moines and Terre Haute, for example. Even though it costs more here for land, taxes, wages and almost everything else we have to contend with, like laying 138,000-volt cables under downtown Chicago.

Now, if you're tempted to ask how come we're cheaper in spite of all that, there are really several answers.

The fuel we use. About forty percent of it is uranium. And from a cost standpoint, that's as good as you can get.

The innovative technology we've developed.

Like refrigerating those cables we mentioned so they can carry bigger loads. In other words, move more electricity for less money.

And something else just as important, called "economies of scale." Lower costs due to larger size. It saves us a bundle, which helps keep our rates down.

What it all means is that even with the rate increase we need, when all's said and done, your electricity should still be cheaper. Because nobody's rates are going to stay where they are until America finally licks the problem of inflation.

So the next time you think we're asking for too much, take a minute to think about the people in New York and Los Angeles and little Lafayette.

A lot of them would probably like to be in your shoes.

Sequoit varsity meets basketball disappointment

Varsity looking for championship at Grant

The Antioch High Sequoit basketball team, seems to suffer one disappointment after another.

Coming off two consecutive wins over the weekend of Jan. 19, the Sequoits battled to improve their record again this weekend, but ended only with disappointment.

According to Roger Andrews, head coach, the team has lost eight games by five points or less. "As a team we are doing real fine, but we're running into some weird coincidences that lose it for us," Andrews said.

Those "weird coincidences" include two heart-breaking losses to Northwest Suburban Conference teams. The Sequoits led throughout each game until the two minute mark and lost to Grant on Jan. 25, 51-48, and to Grayslake, 55-54, on Jan. 26.

The Sequoits out rebounded the Bulldogs, 41-26, but the Grant team was able to hold leading scorer Ronny Nauman in check. "Their defense held Ronny real good, but we still dominated the whole game," said Andrews.

Grant secured the winning bucket with three seconds to go in the fourth quarter, making the score 50-48, and then Grant's Mark Bein added a free throw at the one second mark.

Antioch's top scorer, and the only player in double figures, was Kurt Selak with 20 points. Although Nauman scored only seven points, he was able to pull down 17 rebounds.

The Sequoit's John Ploss came off the bench to do a commendable job, according to Andrews.

Again, the pressure was too much during the Saturday night contest against the Rams. The Sequoits had a 13 point lead late in the third quarter, but were out scored 13-9 in the fourth quarter.

"These kids are working harder than ever in these games, but the pressure just gets to be too much for them, and they end up losing on a mistake that might not have hurt them otherwise," Andrews said.

Mark Maras led with 21 points and grabbed 9 rebounds. Nauman, who again was closely monitored by the Ram's defense, chipped in 12 points and grabbed nine rebounds.

The Sequoits again dominated rebounding, 30-17.

Round Lake will host the Sequoits, whose record now stands at 7-10 overall, Feb. 1 for a NWSC contest. Woodstock will be at Antioch Feb. 2.

"We're keeping positive about the whole thing. We're just going to keep working hard," Andrews said.

Antioch High School Varsity wrestlers warmed up for the Northwest Suburban showdown meet with Grant Jan. 31, by defeating Wauconda 53-11 Jan. 25 and Crystal Lake South 29-27, Belvidere 38-12, and Marion Central 55-3 Jan. 26.

The Sequoits are now 5-0 in the NWSC and 15-7 overall. Grant is also 5-0 in the conference, and this dual meet should assure the victor of at least a co-title. In recent years these two teams have battled repeatedly for the conference crown.

Earlier this year Antioch was not considered a serious challenger as graduation had reduced the Sequoits experience to only three starters, but the young Sequoits have matured well and now appear to challenge for the conference title.

Antioch will start, at 98, Tad DeRousse; at 105, Dave Maninna, at 112, Dave Unrein; at 119, John Wohlfiel or Dan Larsen; at 126, Jon Gibson; at 132, Dave Duvall; at 138, Jeff Canella; at 145, George Bessette; at 155, Chuck Bogaerts; at 167, Bill Carney; at 185, Ted Bessette and at hwt., Scott Buxton.

The meet at Grant starts at 6 p.m. with Antioch's undefeated freshmen battling Grant's undefeated team. The varsity and JV meet will begin at about 8 p.m.

Emmons grade boasts 124-2 seven-year record

For the tenth year in a row, the Emmons Raiders captured the DesPlaines-Fox Valley conference regular season title. They also have claimed conference tournament seven seasons in a row, the entire life of the tournament. Over this span, the Raiders have compiled a 124-2 won-lost record in the conference.

This year the Raiders went 10-0 in regular season play and added two victories in capturing the tournament crown. Rod Steiskal has led the Raider attack with a 14.3 scoring average while Mike Christiansen has added at a 12.8 clip.

The Raider offense has been directed by point guard Ed Kuligowski who is scoring at a 7.8 point pace while controlling the tempo of play. Phil Raven, Bryan Becker and Steve Mueller have seen equal playing time and have contributed to a balanced attack. Ed Schwind and Rob Altman have come off the bench to help when injuries or fouls weakened the Raider line-up. Rounding out the squad were Don Villa and Kendall Kirkpatrick.

In tournament games, Emmons played its best basketball of the year. The Raiders opening game against Spring Grove saw the Raiders blow the game open early with a first quarter 20-8 lead. Emmons presented a balanced attack led by Steiskal's 12 and Raven's 11. Christiansen added nine and Kuligowski and Becker each added eight. The final score showed Emmons an easy victor 62-31.

The championship game was decided by a 55-33 margin. Millburn's Mustangs, the Raider opposition, had difficulty solving the Emmons 1-3-1 zone. By the time the Mustangs had adjusted the Raiders had a secure 25-17 halftime lead. The Raiders were also able to hold Millburn's high scoring forward, Greg Herman to six points.

The Raiders again had a balanced attack. The scoring for Emmons was Christiansen 12, Raven 12, Becker eight, Steiskal six, Kuligowski six, Mueller five, Schwind four, and Altman two. The Raiders controlled the boards led by Christiansen's 14 rebounds while Raven added 10 and Becker grabbed eight.

The Raiders play in the Antioch Invitational, held at Antioch Upper Grade School at 8:15 p.m. on Thursday, Jan. 31. Also in the tournament will be the highly touted, undefeated host, the Antioch Apaches.

More than just fishing at derby

As post time approaches for the Feb. 9 and 10 annual ice fishing derby and winter festival sponsored by the Northern Illinois Conservation Club and the 885 Civic Club, it appears that the event is headed for another new record in attendance and contest participation.

The annual event will offer major prizes to be awarded to holders of derby tickets in addition to literally hundreds of other prizes which will be presented to fishermen winning or catching outstanding sizes of fish during this important two-day event and athletic contests which are scheduled.

Included in the major prize category are a $1,000 and $500 savings bond, a Jiffy Power Ice Auer, His and Her Down Vests, Knipco Portable Heater, $100 gift certificate, Garcia Ambassador Rod and Reel Set, Refrigerator Coverall and Down Best, Eureka Ice Fishing Tent, plus many, many more.

That the busy body of water in the northern Illinois chain is still an angler's mecca has been proven throughout the years and 1979 fishing activity has once again demonstrated that knowledgeable fishermen can walk away happy with very respectable catches. The activities of the derby are designed to attract public attention to the tremendous fishing possibilities in the chain as well as to support the nature conservation and civic support activities of both clubs.

Ice fishing is a group affair

JV grapplers post come from behind win

The wrestling JV's of Antioch High School had a very successful weekend. It began last Friday, Jan. 25, when Wauconda High School failed to bring a JV squad and forfeited that level of competition.

But the Sequoits prefer to earn wins as they did the next night against Crystal Lake South and Belvidere. Prospects looked bright for the opponents as both organized early leads against the Sequoits.

At the end of six matches against Belvidere, the JV's were down 12-19.

Things looked even worse against Crystal Lake South who held the Sequoits 6-25 after seven matches. Hopes were dim until the upper weights banded together to pull out the win.

Until this point, the only winning Sequoits had been Rob Schwabe, 105 pounds who pinned Belvidere; Pete Kessler, 126 pounds, who pinned Belvidere; and Dave Moffat, 119 pounds, who obtained a forfeit from Crystal Lake.

Antioch first gained control against Belvidere with two forfeits, one to Cameron Adkins at 155 pounds, and one to Butch Kukgaard at 185 pounds.

Kris Vogt decisioned a Belvidere wrestler who had won 17 and lost only two. Kris beat him 6-2. Phil Bielauski pitched in by defeating Belvidere's best wrestler 3-2 in a hard fought six minute battle. Rich Schlarbaum finished off Belvidere's heavyweight with a pin in three minutes 12 seconds. The final score against Belvidere was Antioch 36, Belvidere 25.

The Sequoit attack against Crystal Lake South started at 145 pounds with Mitch Lasco. Lasco had a strong opponent, but, with a quick takedown and near-fall, he clearly gained control of both his opponent and the match. Taking him down three more times, near-falling him once more and escaping once, Lasco superioered the Crystal Lake 145 pounder 14-2.

Next in line was Mike Mercer, the 155 pounder, again, Crystal Lake had a strong competitor. At the whistle, Mike was taken down and had to fight the entire first period for a one point escape. A persistent wrestler, Mercer pressed his opponent for another escape and a takedown, and won 4-2.

At 167 pounds, an inexperienced, but aggressive, Jim Domkowski took the mat. Undaunted Damkowski attacked and held his opponent scoreless through the first period. Domkowski had to win: if he lost, even pins by the last two Antioch wrestlers could not earn a victory.

Domkowski took control in the second period, escaping from the bottom for one point, then taking down his man. He led 3-0 going into the third period. He remained aggressive and won his match 6-2.

Antioch was now only 8 points behind Crystal Lake. It was obvious that, in order to pull out the victory, both of the last two wrestlers had to win, and at least one had to win with a pin. Coach Dan Mikal had good reason for confidence in his two remaining wrestlers. At 185 pounds, Butch Kirkgaard had won eight matches and lost one in dual meet competition. He was a Hersey High School Sophomore Team Tournament Champion, an Antioch Sophomore Tournament Champion, and a Carmel Sophomore Tournament Champion. At Heavyweight Rich Schlarbaum was a Carmel Sophomore Tournament Champion, a second place finisher in the Antioch Sophomore Tournament and had a 6-4 record in dual meets.

Both wrestlers were on separate mats at the same time. Schlarbaum wasted no time and pinned the Crystal Lake heavyweight in just 39 seconds. Kirkgaard saw the fall and realized it was all up to him now.

An amazing wrestler under pressure, he took his opponent down twice and escaped from him once in the first period. Ahead 5-0 in the second, Kirkgaard pinned his opponent winning the match and the meet. It was an incredible 29-25 come from behind victory from the JV Sequoits.

Frosh remain unbeaten in conference play

Antioch High School freshmen basketball team maintained its unblemished conference record by scalping the Bulldogs of Grant 54-35.

The frosh are now 8-0 in conference play and 11-3 overall.

Grant trailed at 29-23 at halftime before the visiting Sequoits broke away. Tom Anderson scored 21 points to lead all scorers.

Chris Becker and Tim Hoiokolis were also in double figures with 13 and 10 points respectively. Becker grabbed 13 rebounds to lead total Antioch domination of the boards. Brad Herbst was credited with six assists.

The win was a team victory as all players contributed to breaking the Grant press and controlling the tempo. As a team Antioch shot a very good 59 percent from the field and had only 12 turnovers. The Bulldogs were out rebounded 29 to 16.

Grant won the B game 45-34. Andy Runyard scored nine points and Jeff Kemphner and John Andre each hit for seven points to lead the Antioch effort. Kevin Kovach was praised for his rebounding and John Silionoff for his hustle, according to Coach Norm Hahn.

Emmons B finishes first in conference

The Emmons seventh grade basketball team won its seventh consecutive Des Plaines-Fox Valley Conference tournament held at Grass Lake School.

The Raiders' two victories marked their 89th and 90th straight over conference opponents.

Emmons received a bye for the first round game by virtue of its regular season conference championship. In the semi-finals Emmons defeated Grass Lake 33-18. In the championship the Raiders defeated a tough Spring Grove team 40-35.

Against Grass Lake, Brad Poulter led the way by dishng out six assists and scoring 10 points on five for six shooting. Stan Kuligowski was four for five from the floor and finished with nine points and three assists. Don Chisolm and Randy Steiskal each chipped in six points. Emmons started quickly against Spring Grove, streaking to a 16-5 lead in the first quarter as they hit on eight of 10 shots. Spring Grove trimmed the lead to 20-16 by the end of the half on a strong second quarter performance. The Raiders held on to a four to six point lead for the remainder of the game.

Brad Poulter continued his unselfish ways as he gave out eight assists. Don Chisolm was the main beneficiary of Poulter's generosity as he led the scoring with 12 points and also collected 14 rebounds. Rob Christiansen added nine points and hauled down 12 rebounds. Stan Kuligowski had eight points and six steals, while Matt Weber hit for six points coming off the bench.

The wins gave Emmons a 19-1 season mark. The Raiders played their final game Jan. 29 against Viking School in Gurnee.

Antioch bowlers runners-up in conference tourney

This year, Stevenson High School hosted the Conference Bowling Tournament at Mundelein Fairhaven Lanes.

In the first round of bowling, Warren led with a 2330 pin total, followed by Antioch, 2135, and Grant, 2129. The second round found Antioch in first place, 2249 total with Warren, 2198 and Grant 2027 close behind.

It was expected that Antioch, Warren and Grant would be the three main competitors in this tournament. What was not foreseen were the low bowling scores. Only two girls bowled a 200 game, they being Terry Ciesla of Warren 215 and Diane Applehans of Antioch, 201.

The Antioch bowlers were: Jill Levoe, Janie Jorgensen, Cindy Toole, Diane Applehans and Lori Meyer. Ms. Applehans, Ms. Levoe, and Ms. Jorgensen each received a medal in recognition for being of the Top 10 Bowlers in this conference tournament.

The District tournament will be held at 8:30 a.m. on Friday, Feb. 1 at Round Lakes Bowl. The winner of that tournament will go downstate.

50 YEARS AGO: JANUARY 23, 1930

Final tribute was paid to the memory of Ernest E. Lehmann of Lindenhurst Farms Tuesday when a small number of relatives and friends attended a private funeral. Mr. Lehmann, who was 43, died of a heart attack. He has lived with his family for the last 10 years at his estate at Lake Villa. He was one of the heirs to his father's $8 million estate and his manor at Lake Villa is a beauty spot well known throughout the county.

Over 500 members of the Lake County Pure Milk association attended a huge meeting at the opera house at Grayslake, the occasion being the celebration of the first anniversary of the truce agreed to by the farmers and the dealers following the strike last winter.

Being sentenced to serve from one year to life in the Joliet penitentiary, Arthur Reid, box car thief, will go back to prison where he became an informer on his brother convicts in 1927. His welcome, he pointed out, will be none too kind and he looks for death at the first opportunity the convicts get to dole it out.

"Saturday is prison bath day; the men will be able to get at me then," he said when pleading with the sheriff to take him Monday instead of Sat.

Miss Flora DeVoss, ever popular stage favorite, returns to the footlights next week when she appears with the Rotnour Players in the title role of the popular drama, "Peg 'O My Heart." The play is to be presented at the Crystal theatre, Antioch.

The annual chicken dinner was served by the Priscillas in the church parlors Wednesday noon to a small crowd, about $40 being cleared.

How about paying 25 cents for $75 worth of publicity? Let us say you have some old furniture for sale or maybe you want to rent a house, or hire a maid or sell a flock of chickens. You could write a letter to each of the subscribers of the Antioch News. Let's see now. 1500 times a 2-cent stamp plus cost of stationery plus labor equals about $75. Instead, why not write your message and send it in or call 43. For 2 bits.

Antioch resident celebrates 80

"I've loved every minute of it!" That was the happy acknowledgement from a life-time Antioch area resident who celebrated her birthday of 80 years on Jan. 23 at Richmond Country Club.

Mary McCann, who can't say enough about life, her family, Antioch or her experiences, was overwhelmed with 45 people in attendance at her party that started at noon and lasted until 3 p.m. Members of her family were there along with many friends. She even had a surprise visit from her brother who resides in Florida.

"We started the party by saying that nobody would cry, but when he walked in the door, I almost did," Mrs. McCann said.

Mrs. McCann has worked hard all her life in the Antioch community, and talking with the woman uncovers some interesting stories about her life, Antioch living and life in general.

Something not many people can boast is living in the same area all their lives. Mrs. McCann can. She has lived in a five mile radius of her parent's home on Sheehan Rd. all the years of her life.

She even married the fella next door. "I was married to Robert James McCann for 43 years," she said. He was a rural mail carrier in Lake Villa, and the late McCann's wife substituted on his route on occasion.

The fun-loving woman has a list of activities she has been involved in longer than the Bill of Rights. She devoted her life to teaching children as a substitute in Lake Villa and Antioch Schools. She remembers when education used to be well received by youngsters.

"There was a time when education was left to the teacher. Now it's not like that. Parents really get involved," Mrs. McCann said.

AND WORK. That is something Mrs. McCann is familiar with. "I used to teach school, and I was my own janitor and started the fires in the schoolhouse," she recalled. "I worked with some of the best principals in Lake County, I drove a horse and buggy to work, and I made $55 per month."

Mrs. McCann completed six weeks of college at DeKalb, and attributes her ability to teach to the fact that she just worked hard. "I used to work hard, and I loved every minute of it. I wouldn't want to go back teaching today, though," she said. "I used to lunch with the youngsters, but today, nothing like that happens."

The 80-year-old woman taught school for six years before she married, and after she took time out for four children, she went back to teach for 25 years. She was president of the Oakland Grade School Board, active in 4-H with her children, and a member of St. Peter's Church. Her father, was a member of the high school board. "That school sure has grown," she said. "I remember when there was just a little gym there."

"And now, when you say Walker's Corner, nobody knows what you're talking about!" she commented on the change in the community.

"MY GRANDCHILDREN are what has kept me young," she added. "I've got such a wonderful family." She has 12 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Although Mrs. McCann doesn't have the desire to travel, she occasionally visits her brother in Florida. She felt that some people just enjoy travel more than others.

But she has no regrets with the way the three quarters of a century plus have gone so far. "I always say I've done it all. Everything but be a bartender — and I'd probably done that too!"

Two die in auto accident

Two Antioch residents were killed in a two car, head-on collision on Rte. 83 near Beach Grove Rd. on Jan. 24, and the driver of the car responsible for the accident has been charged with reckless homicide.

Dead are Robert D. Peterson, 22, and James P. Koch, 23, both of Joanna Ct. Apt. 203 in Antioch. Peterson was killed instantly, while his passenger, Koch was pronounced dead at 9:59 p.m. at Victory Memorial Hospital.

The driver of the other car, Jimmy D. Curtis, 31, of 506 Prospect Rd. Round Lake Park, and his passenger, Shirley Meyer, 19, of the same address, are listed in good condition at Victory Memorial Hospital with injuries sustained in the crash.

According to Chief Deputy James Donaldson, the Curtis vehicle was traveling south in the northbound lane when it hit the Peterson auto that was traveling northbound.
